

Gilwell Park, world famous home to the Scout movement, is a truly unique venue for both corporate events and private special occasions. Located deep in Epping Forest, but only minutes from Chingford Station (London E4) The White House – dating back to 1754 – is the ultimate London rural retreat, combining stunning Georgian elegance with a real sense of escape. Whether you want a magical London wedding or an adventurous team building day, the house is styled in a simple, understated way, allowing guests to dress it exactly to their tastes and needs. Our pricing policy means that guests can have a truly memorable time, without a big budget. And all our profits go to the Scout movement.

Weddings

Make it your day.

We want you to experience your wedding exactly the way you choose. We believe that a wedding at Gilwell Park is like no other. We don't just offer a quintessentially Georgian country house in a stunning rural setting, we encourage you to tailor every detail. We are immensely proud of The White House, but won't let it determine the style, theme or budget of your big day.

For Corporate Events

Let yourself go.

We want your corporate event to be as adventurous and inspiring as you want it to be. We don't just have a beautiful Georgian country house with plenty of space for workshops, training and creativity, we have acres of woodland perfect for team building, getting muddy or just pretending to be Tarzan on a zip line. It's all about getting out of the office and together, doing something different.

For Private Parties

Do things your way.

A private party should be exactly that – private. It's yours to organise as you choose. Gilwell Park is like no other party venue. It's not only a quintessentially Georgian country house in a stunning London rural setting, but it's completely adaptable, allowing you to shape, design and scale your party exactly to your needs.
